New South Wales

Ranked #5 in Australia

Summary - Welcome to Sydney! Upon your arrival at Sydney airport you will be greeted by Farway Golf Staff before being transferred to the #1 course in NSW for your first round. At the conclusion of your round, enjoy the clubhouse facilities before being transferred to your accommodation for check in.

Situated on the rugged cliffs at La Perouse, New South Wales Golf Club is a wonderful 18 hole par 72 golf course with a combination of undulating fairways, beautiful scenic vistas and a spectacular clubhouse. This inspiring layout is bounded by water on three sides and has many of the characteristics of true links golf. Magnificently wild and exposed, the entire course offers tremendous views and a series of stunning holes built around, over and through the hills and valleys that lead toward the coastline. Golf Magazine ranks NSW Golf Club as the No. 34 golf course in the world.

DAY 02

Bonnie Doone

Ranked #40 in Australia

Summary - Arrive Bonnie Doon Golf Club for your second round.

One of the oldest golf courses in Sydney, the once named Marrickville Golf Course is a tremendous course that has been compared to the likes of Kingston Heath. Bonnie's Doon 18-hole layout was redesigned by firm Ogilvy Clayton Cocking Mead. Bonnie Doon is currently ranked #40 in Australia.

DAY 03

St Michaels

Ranked #41 in Australia

Summary - Arrive St Michales Golf Club for your third round.

Designed by Glancey and Moran, the course layout flows with the natural terrain and beauty of the Little Bay peninsula. The majority of the course is covered by natural bush on both sides of its fairways. The beautiful ocean views on the course and in the club house will satisfy all visitors. St Michaels is currently ranked No. 70 in Australia.
